

BLOOD-BORNE PATHOGENS WEBINAR

Course #41126

OVERVIEW

The Blood-borne Pathogens (BBP) in the Workplace program is designed to provide students with essential knowledge necessary to assist in reduction or elimination of occupational risk of blood-borne pathogens.

This program is intended for all individuals with a reasonable anticipation of contact with blood or other potentially infectious materials in the performance of designated job duties and satisfies requirements under OSHA Blood-borne Pathogens Standard 29 CFR 1910.1030.

TOPICS

- Introduction to the OSHA Blood-borne Pathogens Standard
- Specific Blood-borne pathogens
- Company Exposure Control Plans
- Methods of transmission & risk reduction
- Standard precautions & Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)
- What to do when exposure occurs & Post-Exposure Prophylaxis (PEP)
- Housekeeping & decontaminating surfaces

ADDITIONAL COURSE INFORMATION

Class Length 1 hour
Class Size Up to 24
Renewal Period 1 Year
Course Format..... Webinar
Prerequisites..... None
Customization Not required

SAFETYMAX OFFERS THESE ADVANTAGES

Professional and engaging instructors
On-site training throughout the U.S. & Canada
Webinar / Online training options
Training administration and record keeping services
Meets OSHA requirements

Safetymax is pleased to partner with the following training providers and agencies

